DIRECTORS' REPORT

The Victorian Government established a Native Title Settlement Framework to reach agreements with Traditional Owners. The Victorian Traditional Owners Trust - Dja Dja Wurrung (DDW Trust) was established with effect from 1 July 2018 by an amendment to the initial Trust Deed on 25 September 2018. The initial Trust Deed was signed on 13 September 2011 between Robert Clark the Attorney General of Victoria and the Trustee Victorian Traditional Owners Funds Ltd (VTOFL). The amendment created two separate trusts the DDW Trust and the Gunaikurnai Trust. The trust assets of the Dja Dja Wurrung people and the Gunaikurnai people had previously been accounted for in separate accounts in a single trust, the Victorian Traditional Owners Trust (VTOT).

With effect from 1 July 2018 the trust assets and equity specifically identified with the Dja Dja Wurrung people were transferred to the DDW Trust.

The Directors of the Victorian Traditional Owners Funds Limited (VTOFL) present the annual report for the DDW Trust for the financial year ended 30 June 2022.

Principal Activities and Objectives

The DDW Trust was established for charitable purposes to benefit the Dja Dja Wurrung people of Victoria. The agreement with DDW was formalised through execution of a Participation Agreement on 5 December 2013. The Trust which runs for 20 years will terminate on 12 December 2033.

Report on Operations and Activities

VTOFL has developed a tailored long term investment strategy for the DDW Trust.

The investment strategy was established after meeting with the representatives of Dja Dja Wurrung Clans Aboriginal Corporation (DDWCAC) to develop an understanding its long term and short term financial objectives and its tolerance for risk.

The long term funds were initially invested with the Victorian Funds Management Corporation (VFMC) and were transferred to Mercer Investments (Australia) Limited in November 2021. The funds are invested in a mix of asset classes which are consistent with the targeted investment returns and asset allocations of the investment strategy

Report on Significant Changes and Likely Developments

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic has had a major impact on the economy over the last three years. The Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 and the subsequent global response to those military actions had significant financial effects on supply chains, commodity prices and capital markets. The Trust's investments have been affected by the overall economic uncertainty and negative impacts on the global economy and major financial markets arising from the war.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2022

NOTE 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

Statement of Compliance

The directors of VTOFL have applied the Australian Accounting Standards - Simplified Disclosures as issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB). AASB 1060 General Purpose Financial Statements – Simplified Disclosures for For-Profit and Not-for-Profit Tier 2 Entities was effective from 1 July 2021 and the directors have applied this standard for the first time in the current reporting period.

The adoption of AASB 1060 has no significant impact on these financial statements because the Trust previously complied with Australian Accounting Standards - Reduced Disclosure Requirements.

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with AASB 1060 General Purpose Financial Statements – Simplified Disclosures for For-Profit and Not-for-Profit Tier 2 Entities and the Australian Charities and Not for profits Commission Act 2012 and Regulations 2013. The Trust is a not-for-profit entity for financial reporting purposes under Australian Accounting Standards.

Australian Accounting Standards set out accounting policies that the AASB has concluded would result in financial statements containing relevant and reliable information about transactions, events and conditions. Material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and have been consistently applied unless stated otherwise.

Basis of Preparation

The accrual basis of accounting has been applied in the preparation of these financial statements, except for the cash flow information. Assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses are recognised in the reporting period to which they relate, regardless of when the cash is received or paid.

These financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, and prepared in accordance with historical cost conventions. Amounts presented in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest dollar.

Accounting Policies

a. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the statement of financial position.

b. Investment Distributions

Investment distributions are declared income as advised by the fund managers on the investments. The investments included investments in term deposits, bonds, equities, exchange traded funds and other securities as defined in the management agreement between the Trust and the fund manager. Accordingly, investment distributions include dividend income, interest income and capital gain income (net of any capital loss) upon sale of equities and exchange traded funds. Investment distribution income is accounted upon declaration and credit of the distribution to the investment account. For the year ended 30 June 2022, the Trust received investment distributions of $13,878 (2021: $243,308).

NOTE 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

c. Gain or Losses on Financial Instruments – Investments

The Trust's portfolio of managed investments consists of equities, bonds and other financial instruments. As is customary in the financial markets, investments are traded in that they are sold and then other securities purchased. This results in realised gains or losses from securities that are purchased and sold. Realised gains or losses on financial instruments is calculated by comparing the initial unit purchase price to the unit sale price, multiplied by the number of units withdrawn.

The investment portfolios are priced 'to market prices' at regular intervals, this pricing to market price results in unrealised gains or losses. Unrealised gains or losses from the portfolio investments are not recorded under Income from transactions, but are separately reported under Other economic flows included in the net result.

d. Revenue Recognition

The Trust has adopted AASB 15: Revenue from Contracts with Customers and AASB 1058: Income of Not-for-profit Entities which came into effect from 1 July 2019. The application of AASB 15 and AASB 1058 has not had an impact on the financial performance and/or financial position of the Trust.

Any settlement sum is recognised in the income statement when the entity obtains control of the sum and it is probable that the economic benefits gained from the settlement will flow to the entity and the amount of the settlement can be measured reliably.

If conditions are attached to the settlement which must be satisfied before it is eligible to receive the contribution, the recognition of the settlement as revenue will be deferred until those conditions are satisfied.

When a settlement is received whereby the entity incurs an obligation to deliver economic value directly back to the contributor, this is considered a reciprocal transaction and the settlement is recognised in the statement of financial position as a liability until the service has been delivered to the contributor, otherwise the settlement is recognised as income on receipt.

Interest Revenue is recognised using the effective interest rate method, which, for floating rate financial assets, is the rate inherent in the instrument.

VTOFL pays for expenses on behalf of the DDW Trust. These expenses are included as "resources free of charge" in the statement of comprehensive income and is funded by the Department of Justice and Community Safety.

None of the revenue of the DDW Trust includes any amount for the goods and services tax (GST).

e. Expenses from Transactions

Expenses from transaction are recognised as they are incurred and reported in the financial year to which they relate.

All expenses are stated inclusive of the goods and services tax (GST).

NOTE 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

f. Financial Instruments

Introduction

Financial instruments arise out of contractual agreements that give rise to a financial asset of one entity and financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Categories of financial assets under AASB 9

Financial assets at amortized cost

Financial assets are measured at amortised costs if both of the following criteria are met and the assets are not designated as fair value through the net result:

- * the assets are held by the VTOT - Dja Dja Wurrung Trust to collect the contractual cash flows, and
- * the assets' contractual terms give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interests.

These assets are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method less any impairment.

The Trust recognises the following assets in this category:

- * cash and deposits, and
- * receivables.

Financial assets at fair value through net result

Equity instruments that are held for trading as well as derivative instruments are classified as fair value through net results. Other financial assets are required to be measured at fair value through net results unless they are measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income.

The Trust recognises listed equity securities as mandatorily measured at fair value through the net result and designated all of its managed investment schemes as fair value through net result.

Categories of financial assets under AASB 9

Loans and receivable and cash are financial instrument assets with fixed and determined payments that are not quoted on an active market. These assets and liabilities are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to the initial measurement, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method (and for assets, less any impairment). The Trust recognises the following assets in this category:

- * cash and deposits, and
- * receivables.

Categories of financial liabilities under AASB 9

Financial liabilities at amortised cost are initially recognised on the date they originated. They are initially measured at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial instruments are measured at amortised cost with any difference between the initial recognised amount and the redemption value being recognised in profit and loss over the period of the interest bearing liability, using the effective rate method. The Trust recognises the following liabilities in this category:

- * payables (excluding statutory payables), and
- * borrowings.

Reclassification of financial instruments: Subsequent to initial recognition reclassification of financial liabilities is not permitted. Financial assets are required to be classified between fair value through net result, fair value through other comprehensive income and amortised cost when and only when the Trust's business model for managing its financial assets has changes such that its previous model would no longer apply.

NOTE 1: Summary of significant accounting policies

g. Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The DDW Trust is not registered for GST.

Investment revenue does not incur GST.

Expenses and assets are recognised inclusive of the amount of GST.

Receivables and payables in the balance sheet are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis.

h. Fair Value of Assets and Liabilities

The trust measures some of its assets and liabilities at fair value on either a recurring or nonrecurring basis, depending on the requirements of the applicable Accounting Standard.

“Fair value” is the price the company would receive to sell an asset or would have to pay to transfer a liability in an orderly (i.e. unforced) transaction between independent, knowledgeable and willing market participants at the measurement date.

As fair value is a market-based measure, the closest equivalent observable market pricing information is used to determine fair value. Adjustments to market values may be made having regard to the characteristics of the specific asset or liability. The fair values of assets and liabilities that are not traded in an active market are determined using one or more valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise, to the extent possible, the use of observable market data.

To the extent possible, market information is extracted from the principal market for the asset or liability (i.e. the market with the greatest volume and level of activity for the asset or liability). In the absence of such a market, market information is extracted from the most advantageous market available to the entity at the end of the reporting period (i.e. the market that maximises the receipts from the sale of the asset or minimises the payments made to transfer the liability, after taking into account transaction costs and transport costs).

The fair value of liabilities and the entity’s own equity instruments (if any) may be valued, where there is no observable market price in relation to the transfer of such financial instrument, by reference to observable market information where such instruments are held as assets. Where this information is not available, other valuation techniques are adopted and where significant, are detailed in the respective note to the financial statements.

i. Fair Value Hierarchy

In determining fair values, a number of inputs are used. To increase consistency and comparability in the financial statements, these inputs are categorised into three levels, also known as the fair value hierarchy.

The levels are as follows:

- Level 1 – quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 – valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable; and
- Level 3 – valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

The Trust determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

j. Trade and Other Payables

Trade and other payables represent the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting year for goods and services received by the DDW Trust during the reporting year which remain unpaid. The balance is recognised as a current liability with the amount being normally paid within 365 days or shorter of recognition of the liability.

NOTE 2: Net investment Income Disclosed in the Statement of Comprehensive Income

NOTE 14: New Accounting Standards and Interpretation

Certain new and revised accounting standards have been issued but are not effective for the 2021-22 reporting period. These accounting standards have not been applied to these financial statements. The State is reviewing its existing policies and assessing the potential implications of these accounting standards which includes:

AASB 2020-1 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards - Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current

This Standard amends AASB 101 to clarify requirements for the presentation of liabilities in the statement of financial position as current or non-current. A liability is classified as non-current if an entity has the right at the end of the reporting period to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period. The meaning of settlement of a liability is also clarified. AASB 2020-6 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards - Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current - Deferral of Effective Date was issued in August 2020 and defers the effective date to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 instead of 1 January 2022, with earlier application permitted.

In addition to the new standard and amendment above, the AASB has issued a list of other amending standards that are not effective for the 2021-22 reporting period. In general, these amending standards include editorial and reference changes that are expected to have insignificant impacts on public sector reporting.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Trustee of the Victorian Traditional Owners Trust - Dja Dja Wurrung

Opinion	I have audited the financial report of Victorian Traditional Owners Trust - Dja Dja Wurrung (the Trust) which comprises the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • balance sheet as at 30 June 2022 • comprehensive operating statement for the year then ended • statement of changes in equity for the year then ended • cash flow statement for the year then ended • notes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policies • directors' declaration. In my opinion the financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust as at 30 June 2022 and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the financial reporting requirements of Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and comply with Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Regulations 2013 and applicable Australian Accounting Standards.
Basis for opinion	I have conducted my audit in accordance with the Audit Act 1994 which incorporates the Australian Auditing Standards. I further describe my responsibilities under that Act and those standards in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of my report. My independence is established by the Constitution Act 1975. My staff and I are independent of the Trust in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to my audit of the financial report in Victoria. My staff and I have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. I confirm that the independence declaration required by the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, which has been given to the Trustee of the Trust, would be in the same terms if given to the Trustee as at the time of this auditor's report. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.
Other information	The Trustee of the Trust is responsible for the Other Information, which comprises the information in the Trust's annual report for the year ended 30 June 2022 but does not include the financial report and my auditor's report thereon. My opinion on the financial report does not cover the Other Information and accordingly, I do not express any form of assurance conclusion on the Other Information. However, in connection with my audit of the financial report, my responsibility is to read the Other Information and in doing so, consider whether it is materially inconsistent with the financial report or the knowledge I obtained during the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work I have performed, I conclude there is a material misstatement of the Other Information, I am required to report that fact. I have nothing to report in this regard.

The Trustee's responsibilities for the financial report The Trustee of the Trust is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Regulations 2013 and for such internal control as the Trustee determines is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the Trustee is responsible for assessing the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless it is inappropriate to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report As required by the Audit Act 1994, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on the audit. My objectives for the audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, I exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Trustee.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the Trustee's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Trust to cease to continue as a going concern.

- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

I communicate with the Trustee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

I also provide the Trustee with a statement that I have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
